THE OPPORTUNITY

- You step in to support our students when their teacher is unavailable, whether for just a block or an extended leave
- You support students' learning with innovative & unconventional learning opportunities, prioritizing land-based learning and integration of Stz'uminus & Coast Salish teachings
- You continuously develop relationships with your peer educators, administration, students, families, partners & community members
- You collaborate with educators throughout SES to enhance & lead explorations, projects, units and lessons
- You participate with dedication in all aspects of our school community including professional development
- You conduct & contribute to assessments of & for learning, as well as metric and reporting requirements

WHAT YOU BRING

- You are a dedicated educator & a lifelong learner who leads with relationship and respect
- You are confident with behaviour management and able to care for yourself & others in challenging situations
- You appreciate the variety of relationships and learning opportunities which teaching on call provides
- You recognize that the most impactful learning can happen outside of a conventional classroom
- You are a collaborative team player who respects and values what each member of the community contributes to education
- You are dedicated to incorporating our indigenous Coast Salish culture, hul'q'umi'num language & Stz'uminus ways of knowing in your teaching and personal learning journey
- You are qualified in current good standing with the BC Teacher Regulation Branch, or are immediately eligible for certification
- You are eligible for clearance of a Criminal Record Check for working with children and vulnerable persons
- You are passionate about supporting indigenous students to expand their learning

As the education provider for Stz'uminus First Nation, SES offers inspiring and engaging programs for our learners and our staff.

Our Teachers on Call work consistently in our JK-12 programs, building relationships with students, families & staff in our community.
